

BIGGER SLICE?

Increase your current earnings significantly and work wherever and whenever you wish.

Sounds too good to be true?

We at Taylor McLaren believe it to be unreasonable that many recruitment consultants receive only a small percentage of fees generated.

We appreciate the efforts a successful recruitment consultant puts in to the job and therefore we reward our consultants appropriately by offering a bigger slice. We are also flexible with work hours and location as we acknowledge that employees desire more control over their lives.
